

NDLA Conference for Continuing Education Graduate Credit

Attendance Requirements

1. Register for the course at <http://www.vcsu.edu/extend/vp.htm?p=823>
2. Earn one credit per 15 contact hours of conference sessions during the 2009 NDLA conference, September 23-26, 2009. See the preliminary conference schedule at <http://www.ndla.info/Conference/09conf.htm> to choose those sessions of interest to you.
3. Complete the Conference Session Log and Personal Reflection and mail both to your instructor by October 15, 2009. Receiving credit is dependent upon submission of a quality summary product as explained below. Submit only your personal reflection & log sheets to Donna James (address below) by October 15, 2009. Do not submit registration or payment for the course to Donna James; registration and payment must be arranged with the Registrar and Business Offices at Valley City State University. Credit will be available on a VCSU transcript as of January 15, 2009 through the VCSU Extended Learning website at <http://www.vcsu.edu/extend/vp.htm?p=823>

Personal Reflection

Write a 1-2 page reflection based on examples gathered from the conference sessions you attended. (Typed, 12-pt. font, double-spaced; full-name and contact information on the word document; check spelling and punctuation—this is a graduate level course.)

Consider the following questions:

- As a practicing library media specialist, what from the conference sessions was meaningful for you?
- How will the NDLA Conference impact your professional practice in your classroom, school, or district?
- Do you feel that the conference helped you to grow in your profession? How? Why?

Conference Session Log

Using the Conference Session Log form and duplicating as needed, document attendance at conference sessions. You must log 15 contact hours per credit earned.

Submit completed conference session logs and personal reflection together by October 15, 2009.
